Immigration Law Update

Current Developments in Immigration

Greetings!

This is the latest installment in our efforts to keep you apprised of the rapidly changing U.S. immigration environment. Some of the most recent changes could have a serious impact on you or your employees, and we urge you to communicate these changes to interested parties.

Department of State Revises October 2015 Visa Bulletin

On Friday, September 25, the Department of State published a revised October 2015 Visa Bulletin. The September 25th bulletin supersedes the visa bulletin DOS previously published on September 9, 2015, and will guide the United States Citizen and Immigration Services (USCIS) in determining who is eligible to file I-485 applications. The most notable change in the new visa bulletin is the retrogression of the filing cut-off dates under the employment-based second preference category for Indian and Chinese nationals. Pursuant to the new visa bulletin, the filing cut-off date for Indian nationals is now July 01, 2009, and the filing cut-off date for Chinese nationals is now January 1, 2013.

If you have any questions regarding your eligibility to apply for an immigrant visa, please contact us to discuss your case in detail.
